ORDER OF THE COMMISSION

BY THE COMMISSION:

This cause came on for hearing at 10:00 a.m., December 20, 2022, at Sidney, Nebraska, before the Nebraska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission, hereinafter referred to as the "Commission".

NOW, on this 20th day of December, 2022, the Commission, a quorum being present, having considered the application, the evidence adduced, the recommendation of the Commission staff, and being fully advised in the premises,

FINDS:

1. That notice of the filing of the application and the time and place of hearing was given in all respects as required by law and the rules of the Commission, and the Commission has jurisdiction of this cause and of all persons interested therein and is authorized by law to enter this Order.
2. That the subject matter of the Application is shown on Exhibit 1, a listing of the wells operated by Foundation Energy MGT, LLC in the State of Nebraska.
3. That said Operator and the Commission have reached a voluntary agreement to release the above stated wells to the Commission.
4. That these wells have no economic value and gas reserves do not justify any further considerations.
4. That the Commission took Judicial Notice of its records as to the Notice of Hearing, Certificate, Affidavit of Publication, and Return Receipt of Delivery.
5. That no written objection to the application was filed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the Application of the Nebraska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission, on its own motion, for an order asking Foundation Energy MGT, LLC to appear before the Commission to show cause, why the Commission should not cause the locations and the lands operated to be restored to agricultural use, is hereby approved.
2. That the Commission shall call this bond.
3. That all opportunities to make these wells economically viable have been exhausted.
4. That the Commission shall retain jurisdiction in this matter.
5. That the effective date of this Order shall be December 20, 2022.

DONE, at Sidney, Nebraska on the day and year hereinabove designated.
